ShriVaibhav Goverdhan, counsel for the petitioner.

Shri U.N.S. Deo, Govt. Advocate for the State.

Heard.

This Court passed an order dated 1-12-2004 in W.P.No. 4204/2004 directing the respondents to decide the representation of the petitioner within a period of two months from the date of production of representation. The said order is a by-parte order.

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that in compliance of the order passed by this Court the petitioner submitted representation before the authorities. It is submitted that even after lapse of considerable period, the representation of the petitioner has not been decided.

Having considered the facts and circumstances of the case and material on record, instead of proceeding further in the contempt petition, in the interest of justice, the authorities concerned are directed to decide the representation of the petitioner, if not already decided, within a period of one month from the date of receipt/production of a copy of this order, failing which the authorities concerned will responsible not only for non-compliance of the earlier order but this order as well.

Accordingly, the contempt petition stands disposed of with liberty to file afresh in case eventuality so arises.

Certified copy as per rules.
